

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

DON'T SHOOT!

—Columbus Dispatch.

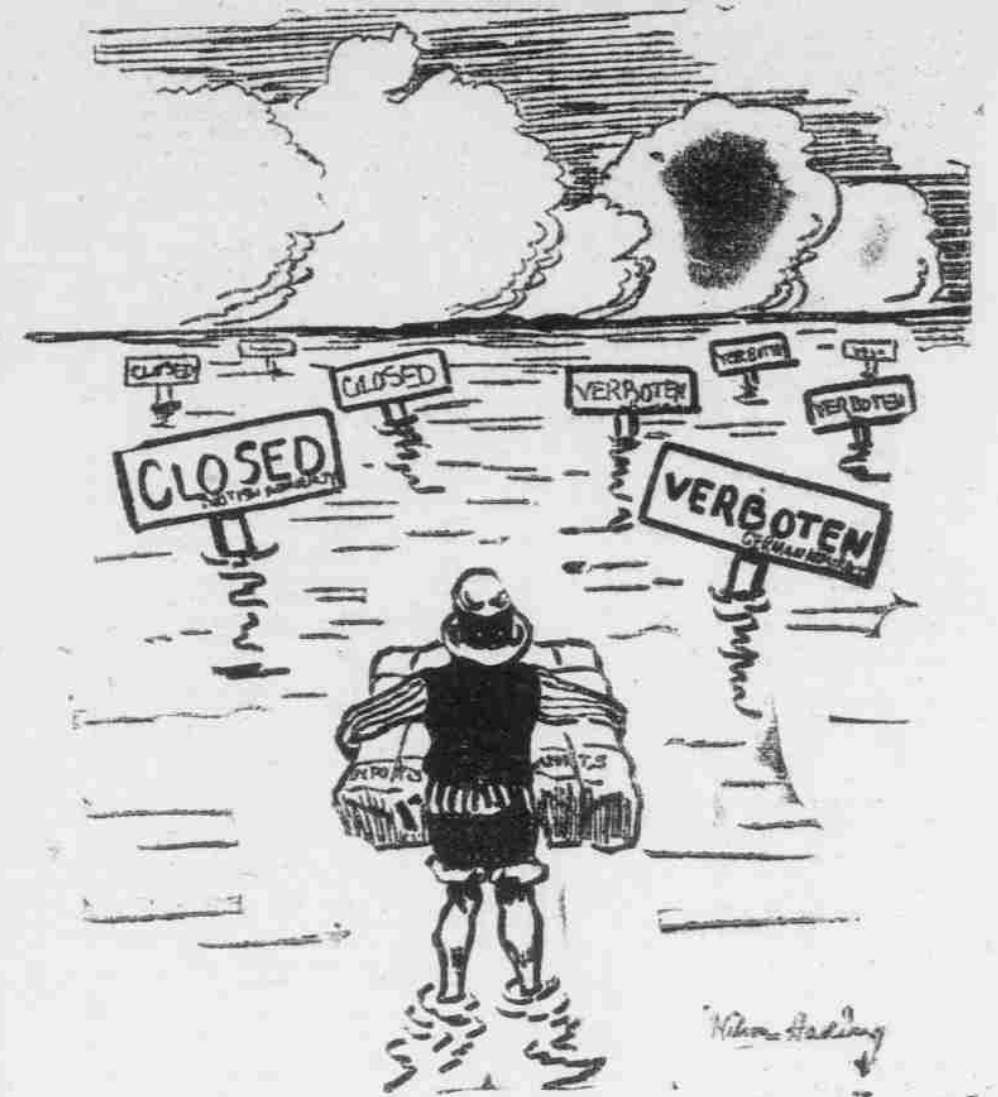

THE INVISIBLE PRESENCE

"WHAT, MORE, DOCTOR WILSON?"

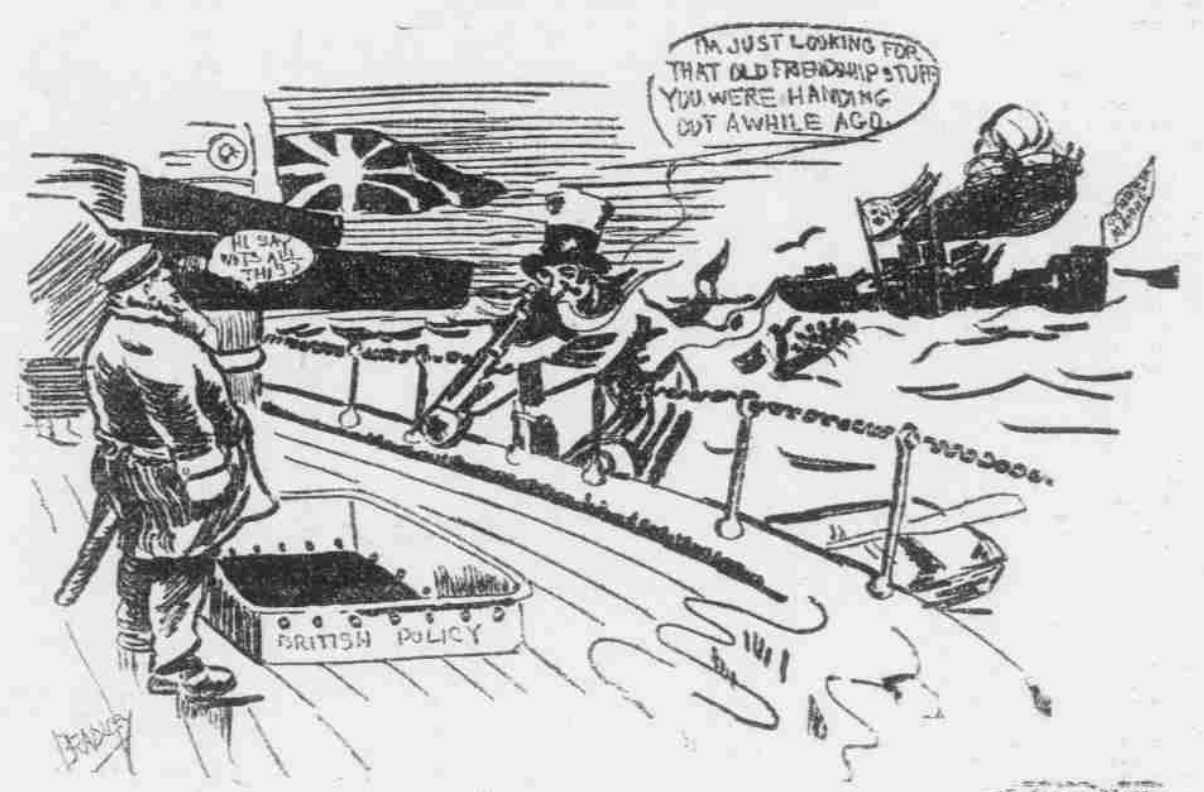

TROUBLED WATERS

—Brooklyn Eagle.

THE FIGHT OF SEARCH

—Chicago News.

HE MAY HAVE TO FLY ANOTHER FLAG

—Baltimore American.

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

SALEM

Fanny Crosby Memorial Service—Address by County Agent—Patriotic Exercises in the Schools.

Rev. R. H. Crawford preached an interesting sermon Sunday morning, taking for his theme, The Good Samaritan. The congregation meeting of the Christian Endeavor society was under the leadership of Nathaniel Clark. The service was in part a memorial service for Fanny Crosby, the pastor giving a brief sketch of her life and work and Crosby hymns were largely used in the service. Rev. R. H. Crawford gave an impressive talk on Foundations.

Recent Contributions.

Recent contributions to the building fund are as follows: Deacon A. N. Lewis of New Britain $25; Lewis Jones and L. L. Ewald of New London $5 each; Miss Hammond Fuller of East Haddam $1. Local contributors to the fund are: Gilbert J. Murray $5; Mrs. S. A. Tibbitts $5 and Mrs. S. A. Miner $1.

Personal Mention.

While in town this week Rev. R. H. Crawford was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Clark.

Dr. Ely of Hamden visited in town last Friday for the first time since his recent serious illness.

Charles S. Ray is confined to his home by illness.

James Bessie met with a painful accident last Saturday, cutting a gash in his leg. The wound was dressed by a Norwich physician.

Sherwood Miner and daughter, Miss Susan Miner visited relatives in Willington Sunday.

Mrs. Ora Clark visited relatives in Colchester last Saturday.

A social dance was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tew on the West road on Tuesday evening.

Murray D. Lincoln of Norwich, agent of the County Improvement League spoke in Grange hall Monday evening.

Quite a number from here attended the concert given by the Bacon Academy orchestra, Colchester.

Patriotic Exercises.

All the schools in town held special

LISBON

bone last week is getting along favorably.

J. E. Thompson and family spent Sunday at Leander Park's.

Mrs. Chester S. Maine attended church at Western Sunday.

Miss Alice Kennedy spent a few days last week with her brother's family in Preston.

One day recently Theodore Kendall and his brother-in-law brought home a string of sixty-two perch.

Mr. and Mrs. August Hoek visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banker in Occum.

Miss Grace D. Wheeler was in New London on Friday and returned home the first of the week from a visit with friends in Mystic.

Mrs. Seth N. Williams, Miss Abby Williams, Mrs. Stephen Palmer and Miss Grace D. Wheeler attended the Missionary society's meeting at the Congregational parish house, Monday on Saturday, and enjoyed Mrs. Pritchard's talk on China and its Customs.

EAST COLCHESTER

Andrew Warner is seriously ill with pleurisy and pneumonia, at the home of John Allen.

Several from here attended the Pomona meeting in Norwich Thursday.

Miss Alice Mahoney had Friday as a visiting day and visited Bozrah's model school.

Many from here saw the reflection of the fire in Colchester early Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Browning were in Hartford Tuesday.

Clark Sillard of Exeter is spending a few days with relatives here.

Ingall Bros' sawmill is soon to be on the McGrath farm. Choppers are busy now.

FITCHVILLE

Miss Christina Maria is spending several days with her uncle and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Glasbrenner of Norwich.

John McCarty spent Sunday with his son, James McCarty, of the Scotland road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brooks and children, Catherine and Mary, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gribben.

Miss Nora Foley has returned, after visiting her aunt, Mrs. Cornelius Collins of Norwich.

Miss Annie Brady spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisk of Norwich.

Mrs. Thomas Gould was a recent visitor at Western.

Servant Miner who broke her collar

ROAD SOCIETY

Sermon at Fellowship Meeting by Rev. Giles F. Goodenough of Ledyard.

Mrs. B. A. Herrick and daughter, Mrs. Everett Barstow Byles, of Providence, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Williams.

Fellowship Meeting.

The fellowship meeting was held here on Wednesday with sermon by Rev. Giles F. Goodenough of Ledyard Congregational church. Dinner was served in the church parlors at noon. The discussion in the afternoon on Young People and Their Work in the Service of Christ was participated in by many.

Henry Flood of Boston spent Sunday with Mrs. Wheeler.

Mrs. Eugene Palmer spent several days recently with her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Johnson, of Providence.

On Feb. 7th a marble tablet to the memory of Rev. Dr. George B. Spalding was unveiled at the First Presbyterian church, Syracuse, N. Y., where he was for 25 years its pastor.

Miss Grace D. Wheeler was in New London on Friday and returned home the first of the week from a visit with friends in Mystic.

Mrs. Seth N. Williams, Miss Abby Williams, Mrs. Stephen Palmer and Miss Grace D. Wheeler attended the Missionary society's meeting at the Congregational parish house, Monday on Saturday, and enjoyed Mrs. Pritchard's talk on China and its Customs.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon.

LIBERTY HILL

Box Social—New Hymn Books Secured—Misses Mary and Nancy Fuller to Erect Cottage.

Rev. E. O. Mead and Mr. Storrs visited church Wednesday.

The C. E. society had a box social at the hall Friday evening.

The church and C. E. society have purchased new hymn books for the Liberty Hill church entitled The Pilgrim Hymnal.

To Erect Cottage.

Misses Mary and Nancy Fuller, who live about a mile north of here, have purchased of Horace Foote a piece of land containing about one acre, situated on the west side of Liberty Hill street and directly opposite the Mary Clarke and W. H. Noyes property. They will erect a cottage on the land as soon as the ground is in condition to dig the cellar.

Mrs. Horatio Goddard of South Manchester, a former resident, was here calling on friends recently.

Mrs. Raymond Moffitt, who has been suffering from muscular rheumatism, is slowly gaining. Miss Ruth Davoll is helping Mrs. Gurley.

Mrs. J. George Clark spent Wednesday in Wilton and called on Miss Helen Packer at St. Joseph's hospital. She has nearly recovered from an operation for appendicitis.

HAMBURG

Miss Dora Reynolds visited relatives in Essex last week.

Mrs. Annie Lord of Saybrook was the guest of her sisters on Bill hill the past week.

The L. E. S. met Wednesday from

PENDLETON HILL

Cook House Burned, Probably by Tramps—Ladies' Society Meets.

The house commonly known as the Cook house, situated north of C. D. Thompson's and owned by Clifford and Irving Thompson, was burned last week. The fire was no doubt caused by tramps who had been used to staying there over night.

The Ladies' society met with Mrs. J. M. Cook Thursday.

Deacon Elmer E. Cook, whose shoulder was injured by a fall on the ice, has recovered so that he is able to attend to his business.

Misses Winifred and Cecile Palmer spent the week end at their home.

Miss Susan Cook returned to the business college Thursday after spending a week at home.

Killed a Fox.

John Geer passed through the place recently with a fox which he had killed.

Home Kinney lost his horse Sunday, the animal breaking its leg in the stable.

Sadie Kinney of Clark's Falls has been visiting at M. O. Chapman's.

Mrs. Lucy Ann White spent Thursday at Mrs. Homer Kinney's.

John and William Watson and families have moved to the Ames Palmer house on the east road.

Misses Olive and Ethel Button were over Sunday guests of their aunt, Mrs. Ada Kinney, of Voluntown.

Miss Sarah T. Palmer attended Murray D. Lincoln's lecture at North Stonington Wednesday.

Regret is expressed by all on account of the contemplated removal of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown to Bradford, R. I., March 1st.

CHESTERFIELD

The baked bean supper held at Lake Pond church the middle of the week was well attended.

Many in this vicinity finished harvesting ice on Monday.

Harry Atwood and a friend from Colchester were callers here Sunday.

Eliza Benjamin is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. George Holmes of Walnut Hill.

Mrs. Lucy Johnson is ill at her home.

Harry Abrahamson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Miller has returned to his home in New York.

The dance Saturday evening was well attended by people from Salem, Montville and New London.

Mrs. Lucy Tinker spent Sunday with friends in Montville.

Misses Etta Kaplan and Jenette Jernsen spent the week-end with their parents here.

Louis Kaplan, who has been ill at his home is able to be out.

Miss Florence Powers spent Sunday with Mary Tinker.

Mrs. Robert Taylor is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Tinker.

HALLVILLE

Mrs. Mary Wood, Mrs. Ruth Conrad and Miss Esther Brown were callers in Norwich yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr. and Mrs. L. A. Eccleston, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Eccleston's son, William H. Eccleston and family, of Stonington. They also called on her daughter, Mrs. Wolcott Main, of Westport.

Mrs. Walter Tenner, who has been the guest for a few weeks of her mother, Mrs. S. Whitmarsh, has returned to her home in Norwich.

Among those who attended the theater last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr., Mrs. L. A. Eccleston, Mr. Oscar Eccleston, Jack Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitmarsh.

Fred Riess and Miss Esther Brown called on Mr. Riess' sister, Mrs. Walter Appler, Sunday.

LEFFINGWELL

John L. Ross and Pearl Ross are doing carpenter work in Norwich.

Miss Florence Taylor and Miss Gladys Leffingwell of Norwich were in town Sunday.

Miss Hazel Calkins spent Tuesday with friends in Unacville.

Irving Foote was a Sunday guest of

NIANTIC

Mrs. Josephine Sweet Becomes Bride of Wilbur H. Robins, of Auburn, Maine—Talk of Building New Houses.

At the Congregational church Sunday the morning subject will be, "Lessons on Lent." Sunday school at noon. Christian Endeavor service at 7:30; topic, Renunciation. Rev. J. William Knappenberg, pastor of the church will be in charge.

Marriage Announced.

Word has been received here announcing the marriage of Mrs. Josephine Sweet and Wilbur H. Robins, of Auburn, Me. Mrs. Sweet has spent several seasons at Pine Grove, where she owns Sunshine Villa, one of the many pretty places along the river.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Durman of the Grove are visiting relatives in Beverly, Mass.

Eldred Rogers is looking after the business at the local news store during the illness of Bert P. Beckwith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Manwaring of Fair Harbor, entertained their son, Conductor William J. Manwaring, of New Haven, Tuesday.

A Levison and family of New London have moved to their cottage in the Grove.

The Bradley family, who are occupying the fellow house on Lincoln street, will move soon to the Robert's tenement recently vacated by the Ross family.

The local troop of Boy Scouts will start today (Saturday) to measure the streets of the village in case that Niantic has a water system.

R. L. Manwaring is painting the interior of the Stratford vacation school.

Mrs. Cynthia Fuller and daughter, Arminia, of New London, were recent guests of Mrs. Adam E. Bishop.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Bishop have been entertaining Julian Bishop, of New London.

Houses in Demand.

Byron Clark is thinking of starting the erection of another dwelling on the Flinders road. There is such a demand for tenements from people living away who wish to come here to locate, it is thought a number of houses would be erected soon.

Charles Bramble was in South Lyme Saturday, purchasing cows for Dr. F. H. Dart.

Miss E. L. Colville has gone to Newfane, Vermont.

HALLVILLE

Mrs. Mary Wood, Mrs. Ruth Conrad and Miss Esther Brown were callers in Norwich yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr. and Mrs. L. A. Eccleston, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Eccleston's son, William H. Eccleston and family, of Stonington. They also called on her daughter, Mrs. Wolcott Main, of Westport.

Mrs. Walter Tenner, who has been the guest for a few weeks of her mother, Mrs. S. Whitmarsh, has returned to her home in Norwich.

Among those who attended the theater last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr., Mrs. L. A. Eccleston, Mr. Oscar Eccleston, Jack Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitmarsh.

Fred Riess and Miss Esther Brown called on Mr. Riess' sister, Mrs. Walter Appler, Sunday.

LEFFINGWELL

John L. Ross and Pearl Ross are doing carpenter work in Norwich.

Miss Florence Taylor and Miss Gladys Leffingwell of Norwich were in town Sunday.

Miss Hazel Calkins spent Tuesday with friends in Unacville.

Irving Foote was a Sunday guest of

NORTH STONINGTON

County Agent Gives Address—Prof Hawley Lectures at Wheeler School—Grange Confers Degrees.

Rev. and Mrs. George B. Marston of Stonington spent Monday in town, the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Lucian Drury. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Luther C. Gray and Mrs. Annes Wheeler attended the fellowship meeting at the Road church, Wednesday.

Special Meetings.

Dr. E. A. Martin of Providence, of the denomination of United Brethren, has been conducting a series of meetings in the village this week.

Mrs. Isaac Goodenough of Ledyard, and Mrs. Charles B. Beckwith of Franklin, were in town Tuesday and attended the weekly sewing meeting in the Congregational vestry.

Mrs. Charles P. Thompson Jr., of New Haven, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Thompson.

Miss Grace Main, teacher of the grammar school and Miss Grace Sheffield, teacher of the primary school, were entertained at tea Monday, by Mrs. Lucia Drury.

Murray D. Lincoln, of Norwich, agent of the County Improvement League, spoke in Grange hall, Wednesday afternoon on the advantage of cooperative purchase of fertilizers.

Lecture at Wheeler School.

Professor B. C. Hawley, of Yale University, gave an illustrated lecture on the Woodlot, in the Wheeler library Friday evening.

Grange Interests.

Sixteen new members were obligated in the first and second degrees at the last meeting of the Grange. Among the number were Principal R. A. Moore, of the Wheeler school, and Mrs. Moore.

A party of local grangers paid a neighborly visit to Westerly Grange, Tuesday evening. The visitors gave the literary program under the direction of Worthy Lecturer, Mrs. John D. Avery.

Oscar Taylor, who works in Plainfield, is home with an injured hand.

HALLVILLE

Mrs. Mary Wood, Mrs. Ruth Conrad and Miss Esther Brown were callers in Norwich yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr. and Mrs. L. A. Eccleston, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Eccleston's son, William H. Eccleston and family, of Stonington. They also called on her daughter, Mrs. Wolcott Main, of Westport.

Mrs. Walter Tenner, who has been the guest for a few weeks of her mother, Mrs. S. Whitmarsh, has returned to her home in Norwich.

Among those who attended the theater last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, Jr., Mrs. L. A. Eccleston, Mr. Oscar Eccleston, Jack Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitmarsh.

Fred Riess and Miss Esther Brown called on Mr. Riess' sister, Mrs. Walter Appler, Sunday.

LEFFINGWELL

John L. Ross and Pearl Ross are doing carpenter work in Norwich.

Miss Florence Taylor and Miss Gladys Leffingwell of Norwich were in town Sunday.

Miss Hazel Calkins spent Tuesday with friends in Unacville.

Irving Foote was a Sunday guest of